STAMMA

FUNDRAISING TERMS & CONDITIONS

Thank you for choosing to fundraise for the British Stammering Association, trading as Stamma. We couldn't keep our services going without your support, and the more you help raise, the more people we can support.

These terms and conditions ensure that you know where you stand as an 'in aid of' fundraiser for Stamma. Please read them carefully and keep a copy before you start to fundraise. You are deemed to accept the terms and conditions if you go on to fundraise for Stamma, whether or not you submit the Fundraising Registration Form.

You (the fundraiser) understand that as an 'in aid of' fundraiser you are organising fundraising events as an independent supporter of Stamma. This means that you do not represent the charity.

You agree that you are undertaking this fundraising activity at your own risk, and Stamma shall not be liable in any way for injury, loss or damage which may occur to you, to your helpers and participants, or to property.

You agree to comply with all applicable laws and obtain all necessary licenses, consents and insurance required for your activity.

You agree to use the Stamma logo and name in accordance with the brand guidelines, which we will supply. You agree that photographs taken during your fundraising activity may be used to publicise the work of Stamma generally.

You understand you have a legal responsibility to ensure all sponsorship money/donations received by you are paid to Stamma, and you will endeavour to do so within 4 weeks of the fundraising activity taking place.

Any materials mentioning Stamma should carry the Stamma reg charity nos 1089967 and SC038866. By submitting this form to Stamma, you confirm you accept these terms and conditions.
