Approaches & Therapies for People Who Stammer

The purpose of this form is first to collect clear accurate information by which we can assess whether a therapy or approach can be advertised on our website, and second, to collect and present your information in a manner which is factual, accessible and neutral.

Please do not give value judgements (e.g. this is a fantastic service) and ensure that your claims are evidence-based, in compliance with the Advertising Standards Agency. We reserve the right, at our sole discretion, to edit, refuse to publish or remove any content, at any time and for any reason.

We are committed to providing high quality, unbiased information about approaches available to children and adults who stammer. There are many types of therapy or approaches that may be beneficial (Baxter et al., 2016), we want to provide everyone with the information they need so they can make the decision about what is right for them. Our review process is aimed at ensuring that the information we provide reflects best practice and recent developments in the field.

Use the template below to give us up-to-date information about your services or approach.
